PILGRIM VIRGIN STATUE OF OUR LADY OF FATIMA

In St. Basil Parish! Please accept an invitation to host this special image of Our Lady in your home for a week. When Mary appeared at Fatima, Portugal, in 1917, she requested that we pray the Rosary for conversion and peace.

WHAT: Pray the Rosary daily

WHO: Invite family, friends, neighbors each evening

WHEN: Your designated week

HOW: By signing up after Mass, beginning June 1-2, or contact: Ashton Mouton, Facilitator, at: amouton47@gmail.com, or text/call 337-296-6713

PROCEDURE: In the Sacristy there will be a purple suitcase with the following items inside: The Statue, a handmade crochet table cover, a gold crown (very fragile, so please handle with care), a Rosary to hang from her hands, and a little dove for the hole in the front bottom of the statue...ten blessed Rosaries, ten "How to Pray the Rosary" pamphlets, some pamphlets on the First Saturday devotion, and a book on the Fatima apparition of Mary to the three children.

Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order & returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land & sea. We live in the shadow of danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked & angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land & spread chaos & disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to you, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your divine Son to reach heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless entity awaits us.

St. Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us.

Imprimatur: August 29, 1967

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 14, 2024

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts." Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles.
